

Person Specification

Description	Essential	Desirable	A/I
Communication & Relationship Skills	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Ability to work and communicate within a multidisciplinary team. • A clear understanding of Risk Management. • Commitment and dedication to service requirements and developments. • Courteous, confidential, sensitive and efficient. • Ability to communicate effectively 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Organisational diplomacy. • Sense of humour. • Leadership qualities. 	A/I
Knowledge, Training & Experience	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Recognised Medical degree • Full GMC registration and licence to practise. • FRCR (or overseas equivalent) • Entry on the Specialist Register (or entry to be within 3 months of expected CCST date). • Musculoskeletal Radiology fellowship. • Broad training across all the modalities of Clinical Radiology. Ability to take full and independent responsibility for clinical care. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Postgraduate degree • Sarcoma Experience 	A/I
Analytical & Judgment Skills	Quantitative demonstration of dedicated MSK (including spinal) interventional procedural experience.		A/I(
Planning & Organisational Skills	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A commitment to teaching and training; both 	Organisation of educational courses / conferences.	A

	postgraduate and undergraduate. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Experience in teaching junior medical staff and medical students. A wish to develop and enhance these skills. • Ongoing commitment to training and teaching.
IT skills	Familiarity with computerised Radiology Management Systems, Microsoft Office, PowerPoint presentation, voice recognition and PACS.		A
Responsibility for Equality, Diversity and Inclusion	Demonstrable commitment to anti-discriminatory and inclusive behaviours and practices		A/I
Responsibility for Policy/Service Development	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • A clear understanding of maintenance/raising of standards. • A commitment to utilising clinical audit as a tool for raising standards and evidence of recent active participation. 		A
Responsibility for financial & physical resources		Management or leadership experience	A
Responsibility for Research & Development	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Evidence of published musculoskeletal papers in peer reviewed journals and presentations at national / international meetings. • Commitment to on-going publications and presentations. 	Proven ability to implement, develop and complete research projects	A/I

