

PERSON SPECIFICATION
Assistant Clinical Technologist

| | Essential | Desirable |
|------------------------|--|--|
| Qualifications | 4 GCSEs at C/4 or equivalent in a Science, Maths and English or other evidence of numeracy and literacy for the level 3 apprenticeship route | |
| Experience | Some work based experience in a commercial, private or public sector organisation. Knowledge of or ability to learn to use a departmental database | Experience of working in a customer orientated service environment, preferably healthcare. |
| Personal Skills | Able to prioritize and manage own work. Able to manage own time and work within time constraints Able to lift medium / heavy weights, and transport using appropriate manual handling equipment and techniques Able to walk long distances, and spend long periods of the working day on their feet Able to concentrate for long periods of time, with frequent interruptions Able to deal with occasional distressing circumstances when working in clinical areas – exposure to patients undergoing surgical and clinical procedures can be anticipated. | Able to exercise initiative when dealing with common issues in the workplace. |

| | | |
|---------------------------|---|---|
| Behavioural Skills | Aligned to the Trust values. Conducts themselves in a professional manner at all times. Positive attitude to all tasks and stakeholders. Able to communicate effectively with customers, suppliers and colleagues, verbally and written using information technology. | |
| Technical Skills | Computer literate Assisting with stock control for equipment consumables. Able to create accurate, legible written records and reports. | A basic understanding of the fundamentals of infection control and medical devices. Full British driving license. IT skills including experience with office suites and databases. |