GENERAL REQUIREMENTS

Competence

At no time should the postholder work outside their defined level of competence. If there are concerns regarding this, the postholder should immediately discuss them with their manager/supervisor. Employees have a responsibility to inform their supervisor/manager if they doubt their own competence to perform a duty.

Registered Health Professional

All employees of the LHB who are required to register with a professional body, to enable them to practice within their profession, are required to comply with their code of conduct and requirements of their professional registration.

Health Care Support Workers

Healthcare Support Workers make a valuable and important contribution to the delivery of high quality healthcare. The national Code of Conduct for NHS Wales describes the standards of conduct, behaviour and attitude required of all Healthcare Support Workers employed within NHS Wales. Health Care Support Workers are responsible, and have a duty of care, to ensure their conduct does not fall below the standards detailed in the Code and that no act or omission on their part harms the safety and wellbeing of service users and the public, whilst in their care.

Supervision

Where the appropriate professional organisation details a requirement in relation to supervision, it is the responsibility of the post holder to ensure compliance with this requirement. If employees are in any doubt about the existence of such a requirement they should speak to their Manager.

Risk Management

It is a standard element of the role and responsibility of all staff of the LHB that they fulfill a proactive role towards the management of risk in all of their actions. This entails the risk assessment of all situations, the taking of appropriate actions and reporting of all incidents, near misses and hazards.

Records Management

As an employee of the LHB, the postholder is legally responsible for all records that they gather, create or use as part of their work within the LHB (including patient health, financial, personal and administrative), whether paper based or on computer. All such records are considered public records, and the postholder has a legal duty of confidence to service users (even after an employee has left the LHB). The Postholder should consult their manager if they have any doubt as to the correct management of records with which they work.

Health and Safety Requirements

All employees of the LHB have a statutory duty of care for their own personal safety and that of others who may be affected by their acts or omissions. The postholder is required to co-operate with management to enable the LHB to meet its own legal duties and to report any hazardous situations or defective equipment. The postholder must adhere to the LHB's risk management, health and safety and associated policies.

Flexibility Statement

The duties of the post are outlined in this job description and person specification and may be changed by mutual agreement from time to time.

Confidentiality

The Postholder must at all times be aware of the importance of maintaining confidentiality and security of information gained during the course of their duties. This will in many cases include access to personal information relating to service users. The postholder must treat all information whether corporate, staff or patient information in a discreet and confidential manner in accordance with the provisions of the data protection act 1998 and organisational policy.

Promoting Diversity and Dignity at Work

The LHB is committed to promoting diversity in employment and dignity at work. It recognises that discrimination and harassment is unacceptable and that it is in the best interests of the LHB and the population it serves to utilise the skills of the total workforce. The postholder must comply with and adhere to the equal opportunities and dignity at work policies.
